

MARTIN-LUTHER-UNIVERSITÄT HALLE-WITTENBERG

Martin-Luther-University Halle-Wittenberg (MLU) represents a unique combination of tradition and modernity that provides international students with an outstanding learning environment along with total support in pursuit of their academic goals. Having a long history of more than 500 years, MLU is one of the oldest comprehensive universities in Germany. With over 260 Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes, anyone can find what they are looking for – whether in Medicine, Natural Sciences, Humanities, Economics or Social Sciences. MLU comprises multiple locations across the entire town and offers its students an excellent working environment: WiFi everywhere, numerous canteens and about 20 well-equipped libraries.

Halle itself has everything an attractive and lovable university town needs. Bars and restaurants invite students to socialize and enjoy good food. Culturally interested people will appreciate its theatres, cinemas and festivals. Furthermore, Halle is ideally located: Berlin, Leipzig, Dresden, Frankfurt am Main as well as the Baltic Sea are all just a quick train ride away. Halle's high quality of life is likewise marked by reasonable rents and its beautiful green surroundings. Altogether, Martin-Luther-University Halle-Wittenberg offers you ideal conditions for successful studies and a rich student life.

Facts and Figures about MLU:

Classical comprehensive university
20,000 students
2,000 internationals
5 central locations
9 faculties with about 260 study programmes

Halle (Saale) has a lot to offer:

Vivid arts and culture scene
Colourful student life
Many green spaces for recreation
Affordable rents
Short distances within the city
Fast connections to German metropolises uni-halle.de facebook.com/unihalle instagram.com/uni_halle/

