

Course: Management in healthcare

Objectives: To develop knowledge on basic concepts, tools and models of management and its implementation in healthcare organizations.

Description: Healthcare organization can be run like a business unit by a professional managers. This course shows how to implement the basic concepts of management science into healthcare organizations to improve their effectiveness.

The main topics are the following:

- The development of management science
- Functions of management
- Main differences between public and private sector management
- Leadership in healthcare organizations
- Strategic planning
- Motivation systems
- HR in healthcare
- Controlling in healthcare

Literature: Griffin R.W., Management, any edition
Stoner A.F., Freeman F.F., Edward R., Management, Prentice-Hall, 1992
Walsh K., Smith J., Healthcare management, McGraw-Hill, 2006

Teaching: case study/conversations

Examination: written or oral examination
120 hours

ECTS:4

Person responsible: Tomasz Holecki
Assistant Professor,
Department of Economics and Management in Health Care
School of Public Health
Medical University of Silesia
Katowice, Poland